

What do Parents Say About Middle School at Chapelgate?

In response to a survey conducted by Chapelgate Christian Academy (CCA) parents of middle school students shared the following comments:

- ❖ Our daughter had a very good experience during middle school at CCA. It was socially less intense than our public middle school experiences.
- ❖ Teachers have been amiable and exhibited a caring attitude toward the students.
- ❖ Small class size and non-chaotic atmosphere.
- ❖ Teachers are approachable and good about updating Edline. (Note: Edline is a web-based tool Chapelgate uses to promote communication among teachers, students, and their families.)
- ❖ The relaxed dress code is a positive.
- ❖ I love this school and know I made the right decision to send my student here.
- ❖ We really appreciate the approach CCA takes to the middle school – it's NOT high school and allows the middle school student to still be kids.
- ❖ We continue to be pleased with CCA.
- ❖ We've loved the CCA experience – thanks for all you do.
- ❖ CCA is a wonderful school – The atmosphere encourages learning. The faculty is attentive and supportive.
- ❖ It's nice to know she's being taught by Christian teachers.
- ❖ Teachers are extremely caring and willing to take my child under their wing when it's needed.
- ❖ Your genuine interest in the students is very evident. I always recommend CCA.
- ❖ Spiritual concepts seem to be woven into many subjects and our daughter really enjoys and benefits from chapel.
- ❖ Everyday I thank God for CCA. It is a loving and nurturing environment.
