Why Choose Chapelgate for Middle School?

The middle school years are widely recognized as critical in the lives of our children as they transition from childhood through the teen years and into young adulthood. Students are extremely vulnerable to a wide range of influences during this phase of their lives. Parents seeking to support positive spiritual, academic, emotional, social, physical, and character development can confidently choose to enroll their 6th, 7th, and 8th grade students at Chapelgate Christian Academy for a variety of reasons.

- The middle school academic curriculum and co-curricular activities offered at Chapelgate provide students with a quality program of formal and informal instruction integrated with a distinctly Christian world and life view.
- The middle school philosophy at Chapelgate recognizes the developmental characteristics typical of early adolescents who are still children. We intentionally protect them from undue academic rigor – especially at the beginning of middle school – because we believe this is most healthy for their overall development.
- The middle school program at Chapelgate is highly effective at preparing students to be successful in the Academy's college prep high school program.
- The middle school teachers at Chapelgate are highly-qualified, dedicated Christians who love working with middle school students.
- Middle school tuition rates are intended to make it affordable for families committed to Christian education choose Chapelgate for their children. For 2010 – 2011, middle school tuition rates will be: 6th grade - $6,250, 7th grade - $6,750, and 8th grade - $7,500.
